

Metro

28th September 2010

Circulation: 719,190

Date 28 September 2010
Page 5

newspaper licensing agency

EastEnders tops Carrie

EASTENDERS was streets ahead of its rivals at last night's Inside Soap awards, taking six prizes. The BBC1 show's haul included best soap, while ITV rival Coronation Street landed four awards, including best stunt for the Underworld factory siege scene. Australian import Neighbours beat Home And Away and Doctors to be named best daytime show at the event in north London. 'It's wonderful to be able to reward the amazing work we've seen this year,' said Inside Soap editor Stephen Murphy.

Good day: Sam Clark with the award for Neighbours

Soap star: Coronation Street's Holly Quinn-Ankrah Pictures: AP/PA

Copyright material. This may only be copied under the terms of a Newspaper Licensing Agency agreement (www.nla.co.uk) or with written publisher permission.

For external republishing rights see www.nla-republishing.com

