Essentials

Why join the King's Club?

Membership of the club affords you the luxury of always guaranteeing you and your guests entry and first refusal on a table in our exclusive dining and drinking section, as well as a host of other benefits including a dedicated concierge booking service, invitations to private wine tastings and special events.

Where is the King's Club?

Within Shaka Zulu Restaurant, Bar and Lounge we have reserved our best seating for Kings Club Members. This is a private and more intimate section within the restaurant around our iconic Warrior Wall, with an unrivalled view across the venue - these are simply the best seats in the house! Shaka Zulu is located in Stables Market, Camden Town.

When can I use my Kings Club membership?

Your membership can be used at any time that Shaka Zulu is open, (see web site for up-to-the-minute opening times). You will receive 10% off your bill every time you use your card anywhere you choose in our lounge, restaurant or club.

Will I need to have my membership card with me?

Yes, you always need to have your membership card with you, whether dining or just drinking. Only members and their guests have access to this exclusive area within the venue.

What's the dress code?

Smart Chic (no trainers, shorts or head wear)

What sort of food do you serve?

Kings Club is the VIP section of our authentic South African Braai restaurant. We are the only restaurant serving authentic South African dishes including game meats, such as Kudu, Ostrich and Springbok from Namibia along with some authentic dishes like Bredie, Bobotie, Sosaties and of course, the famous Boerewors sausage. For the less adventurous, there's always our fabulous domestically sourced steaks.

Do you have entertainment?

Yes, a whole programme of events and entertainment is scheduled from live performances to dancers, as well as special events and occasions which, as a member, you will receive invitations.

What music do you play?

With a host of top DJs and artists controlling the tempo of each night, their only remit is to play intoxicating rhythms from the latter part of the evening until the early hours.

How do I make a reservation?

Contact our Kings Club Concierge Team on 020 3376 9999, or email kingsclub@shaka-zulu.com - our concierge will be pleased to help.
